Halloween Window Painting Judges

Each year the Recreation & Community Services Department conducts a Halloween window painting event in downtown Los Altos. Prizes are awarded for the best window paintings in each of the 6 age categories. The Recreation & Community Services Department is looking for 2-3 volunteer judges for this event and is asking the Parks and Recreation Commission if anyone is available to assist. The event judging information is as follows.

Sunday, October 25, 2015
Downtown Los Altos
9am

If you are able to volunteer as a judge for this event please email Greg Milano at GMilano@losaltosca.gov for more information.

Additional Drought Measure Items Available

The City of Los Altos has made arrangements with Santa Clara Valley Water District to bring FREE "Brown is the New Green" lawn signs and FREE shower buckets to all County residents. There are now additional drought related items available FREE to County residents. These items are shower heads, faucet aerators, hose nozzles, shower timers, and moisture meters. Limited supplies are available for pick-up at the same two locations (MSC & Hillview Community Center).
